Ready for a night out of time? Put on your snowshoes and come explore the snowy trails of Chamonix. You'll see the snow sparkle in the light of your headlamp—magical vibes guaranteed ❄️

Highlights

- An activity away from the crowds of Chamonix, in a magical setting!
- A local guide to share mountain stories with you.
- A private experience to create YOUR own intimate memories.
- Flexibility to tailor things to your wishes.

COMPLETE DESCRIPTION

Experience something unique and fun: a snowshoeing stroll under the stars in Chamonix, led by a local guide who's passionate about the area!

Olivier, your guide, will share tons of interesting stories about life at high altitudes and the winter nature, making this outing both educational and unforgettable. He'll also make sure you're safe during this easy and enjoyable walk, perfect for beginners as well as nature lovers.

With snowshoes, poles, and headlamps, you'll go on a 2-hour hike through gently rolling terrain. Get ready to be amazed by the winter scenery, lit up by the stars and the peaceful mountain atmosphere. After your snowy adventure, you'll be back in Chamonix by 8:30 PM, full of great memories and a light heart.

Prefer daylight? No worries – this activity can also be arranged during the day. Or even better, catch it at sunset to enjoy the best views of the Mont-Blanc massif! Whether under the stars or in the daylight, this outing guarantees a magical moment right in the heart of the Alps.
